OBJECTIVES

At the completion of this activity, the participants should better be able to:

1. Name values in tension in cases where cardiology, mental health and addiction problems intersect.
2. Describe ethical considerations when developing plans of care for cardiology patients with complex psychosocial needs.

DISCLOSURE POLICY & STATEMENTS

Allina Health Learning & Development, Office of Accreditation intends to provide balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all of its educational activities. The ACCME defines an ineligible company as “any entity” whose primary business is producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care products/services used by or on patients. The ACCME does not consider providers of clinical service directly to patients to be commercial interests - unless the provider of clinical service is owned, or controlled by, an ACCME-defined ineligible company. All speakers and planning committee members participating in the CME activity are required to disclose to the audience any financial relationships with ineligible companies that have existed WITHIN THE LAST 24 MONTHS, even if it has now ended.

Moderator(s)/Speaker(s) – Joan Henriksen, Kristin Hjartardottir and Katherine Katzung have disclosed that they DO NOT have a financial relationship(s) that has existed WITHIN THE LAST 24 MONTHS with the following ineligible company(s) even if it has now ended as it relates to presenting the content in this CME activity.
