

Challenging Case Competition

Please submit your most challenging, innovative or educational case for consideration in The Physiology Course 2025 Challenging Case Competition. Cases will be reviewed by course directors and winners will be selected to present during the conference program. Submissions open March 3, 2025 and submissions close May 19, 2025 (with NO exceptions).

Eligibility:

- Submitters must be students, residents, or fellows
- Submitters may not be Physiology Course faculty, staff or industry representatives
- Submitters may submit a maximum of one (1) case
- Winners will be selected no later than Monday, May 26, 2025 and will receive a travel grant to cover expenses for attending the course

Categories:

- Coronary

Submission format and process:

- All submissions must be uploaded here.
- Submit via PowerPoint, using the following naming convention: Last Name_ Case Title (example: Smith _CTO)
- On first slide, include the following: Case Title, Submitter First and Last name, Degree, Affiliation, Contact email address
- Final presentation will be a poster, with 1 winner selected to present a PPT during the program